Superintendent's Highlights

The Early Childhood program is showing positive results as the school readiness of incoming kindergartners is improving every year. Student success in reading and math is showing good gains since the implementation of the Success For All reading program in grades K-5 and the Saxon Math series in grades K-9, each program supported with Accelerated Math and Reading.

All new teachers are involved in a program of improvement during their first year which includes seminars, peer observations, goal setting, and out of district visits. The District's staff is finishing Instructional Calendars in each core subject in grades K-12. The Instructional Calendars, aligned to the State Standards, will guide all lesson planning and instruction.

Weiser High School continues to offer a wide variety of Professional Technical Programs, clubs, and organizations. All seniors participate in a yearly community service project.

The very professional teachers and support staff of the Weiser School District continue to work diligently to provide a wonderful educational opportunity for all children.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

2001-02 Goals

Progress

Students and staff will demonstrate respect for one-another and the learning environment.

Good citizen programs, Tribes, discipline procedures and other efforts continue to promote good student behavior. Data on discipline referrals, suspensions and expulsions are gathered yearly in June.

Building level decision-making is promoted.

Building leadership teams recommend budget priorities and curriculum changes.

The curriculum is aligned and assessments are used to improve instruction

Tremendous efforts are being made to develop Instructional Calendars, utilize assessment data, and improve the yearly calendar to facilitate improved teaching and learning.

Parents are involved in the education of their children.

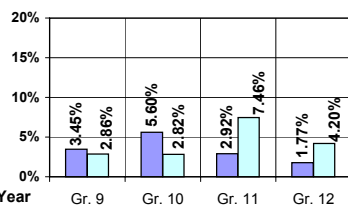

Activities for parents in the school, organizations for parent input and family homework are all part of continuous efforts to engage parents in their child's education.
